J. B. Martin and J. C. McCall having died during the year, their names were referred to the Committee on Memoirs.

At 1 o'clock P. M. the Conference adjourned.

Benediction by Rev. J. W. Jenkins.

THIRD DAY.

FRIDAY, December 2nd, 1898.

The Conference opened at 9.30 o'clock, A. M., Bishop Fitzgerald in the chair.

The opening religious services were conducted by Rev. W. A. Jenkins.

The Journal of yesterday's session was read and approved.

L. B. Bynum, W. J. Womble and N. M. Jurney were granted leave of absence after to-day's session.

Revs. D. B. Austen, of the Virginia Conference, and W. W. Bays, D. D., of the Western North Carolina Conference, and Mr. W. X. Coley, representing the Oxford Orphan Asylum, were introduced to the Conference.

Question 20 was called, viz.: "Are all the preachers blameless in their life and official administration?"

The following elders passed the examination of character: J. B. Thompson, N. E. Coltrane, R. H. Broom, J. H.

Shore, R. F. Taylor, W. J. Twilley, J. C. Kilgo, T. J. Gattis; and M. J. Hunt and T. J. Browning passed the examination of character and their applications for a superannuated relation were, on a motion in each case, referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

When the name of R. J. Moorman was called, B. R. Hall, Presiding Elder of Washington District, said that complaints involving the moral character of Brother Moorman had been placed in his hands and asked that a committee be appointed to investigate these charges. The Conference ordered that the committee be appointed. Bishop Fitzgerald announced the following as the committee, viz: R. B. John, W. J. Twilley, G. F. Smith.

The Presiding Elders nominated and the Conference confirmed J. N. Cole, J. E. Underwood, L. W. McMullan and J. G. Brown as the members of a commission to confer with a like commission appointed by the Western North Carolina Conference regarding the newspaper question.

E. A. Yates moved that the time in which this commission shall do its work shall be limited to the 1st of January, 1899.

On motion of J. C. Kilgo it was ordered that the further consideration of this question be indefinitely postponed.

L. L. Nash having had his credentials stolen from him, on motion of F. A. Bishop, it was ordered that duplicates of them be given him.

L. L. Smith, from the Committee on the Publishing House Claim, presented the following report:

WHEREAS, The payment by the Government of the United States to the Publishing House of the M. E. Church, South, of $288,000, is regarded by the whole Church as a very tardy payment of a just claim, due for the use of said house by the United States army, and acknowledged by all, who know the facts, to be eminently just upon its merits; and whereas, after the bill in the Congress, authorizing the payment of the said claim, had passed the House of Representatives, and while pending in the Senate, Major E. B. Stahlman, employed to prosecute the said claim, openly deceived certain Senators as to the amount of his compensation, and Barbee & Smith, Agents of said Publishing House, when called upon, did not express the whole truth in regard to the same; now, therefore,

RESOLVED, 1. That the North Carolina Conference hereby condemns the open deception of Stahlman and the want of candor on the part of Barbee & Smith.

2. That we have confidence in the godly judgment of our Bishops to protect the Church in this emergency from any stain of dishonor in regard to this whole matter, feeling, as we do, that the entire amount should be refunded rather than that the Church should suffer any stain of dishonor therefrom.

3. That if the United States Senate shall, by affirmative vote, declare that the said bill would not have passed the Senate but for the deception above mentioned, then we recommend the return of the money to the Treasury of the United States.

4. That we recommend that the proper effort be made to elicit an expression from the United States Senate upon the point above suggested.

W. C. NORMAN, Chairman.
L. L. SMITH, Secretary.

J. N. Cole moved the following as a substitute for the third and fourth resolutions of the report:

THERFFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That we urge our Bishops to take whatever steps may be necessary for the immediate and unconditional return of the money to the United States Government.

On motion of G. A. Oglesby the substitute was laid on the table and the report as presented was adopted.

Question 2 was called, viz.: "Who remain on trial?"

Jacob Holt McCracken, passed the examination of character, and having been approved by the Examining Committee, was continued on trial and advanced to the second year.

Question 8 was called, viz.: "What traveling preachers are elected deacons?"

Andrew J. Groves, passed the examination of character, and having been approved by the Examining Committee, was elected to deacon's orders.

Bryan C. Thompson, Robert H. Willis, and Albert S. Barnes, passed the examination of character, and having been approved by the Examining Committee, and, being in deacon's orders, were advanced to the class of the third year.

Question 6 was called, viz: "Who are received by transfer from other Conferences?"

The Bishop announced that Charles C. Brothers, an elder, had been transferred from the Western North Carolina Conference.

Question 12 was called, viz.: "What traveling preachers are elected elders?"

Robert W. Bailey, Solon A. Cotton, Samuel Leffers, Raleigh A. Bruton, Nathaniel L. Seabolt, passed the examination of character, and having been approved by the Examining Committee, were elected to elder's orders.

Question 15 was called, viz: "What local preachers are elected deacons?"

Reuben Hibbard, Durham District, North Carolina Conference,

James A. Dailey, Durham District, North Carolina Conference,

Benson H. Black, Fayetteville District, North Carolina Conference,

John Thomas Erwin, Warrenton District, North Carolina Conference,

William E. Nicholson, Warrenton District, North Carolina Conference,

William A. Bland, Warrenton District, North Carolina Conference,

Benjamin F. DeLoatch, Warrenton District, North Carolina Conference,

James Y. Old, Elizabeth City District, North Carolina Conference, and

John C. Wooten, Elizabeth City District, North Carolina Conference, having been recommended by their respective District Conferences, were elected to deacon's orders.

Question 14 was called, viz: "What local preachers are elected elders?"

Answer: None.

Question 45 was called, viz: "Where shall the next session of the Conference be held?"

J. E. Underwood presented an invitation from the Church in Washington, N. C., for the Conference to hold its next session with that Church;

R. C. Beaman presented an invitation from Grace Church, Wilmington, N. C.,

R. B. John presented an invitation from Centenary Church, New Berne, N. C.,

T. R. Huffines presented an invitation from the Church in Rocky Mount, N. C.,

Washington receiving a majority of the votes cast, the Conference, on motion of L. L. Nash, voted unanimously to accept the invitation from Washington.

The hour of 1 o'clock having arrived, the Conference adjourned.

Benediction by Rev. W. J. Twilley.

FOURTH DAY.

SATURDAY, December 3rd, 1898.

The Conference convened at 9:30 o'clock, A. M., Bishop Fitzgerald in the chair.

The opening religious services were conducted by Rev. J. Sanford, D. D.

A communication from Rev. W. F. Tillett, D. D., Dean of the Theological Faculty of Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tenn., was presented, read and referred to the Board of Education.

A communication from Rev. P. H. Whisner, D. D., Secretary of the Board of Church Extension of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, was presented and referred to the Board of Church Extension.

On motion of J. T. Gibbs, the Bishop was requested to draw his draft on the Treasurer of the Conference Trustees for one hundred and thirty-two dollars and eighty-three cents in favor of the Joint Board of Finance.

On motion of W. H. Moore, W. L. Cuninggim was elected a trustee of the Conference in place of J. A. Cuninggim, resigned.

J. T. Gibbs presented to the Bishop for his construction the following question of law:

Does the last clause of paragraph 332 of the Discipline apply to any and every case of superannuation at the present Conference, and was it the spirit of the law-makers to save men who superannuate from having to wait twelve months for support from the superannuated fund?

J. T GIBBS.

To this question the Bishop gave the following answer:

The last clause of Paragraph 332 means only what it says, namely, that "when a preacher breaks down in the work, and is placed on the superannuated list, his claim shall begin from the time he ceases to receive any support from his last charge." It was not intended to apply to any preacher who serves his charge and receives support therefrom until the close of the Conference year next preceding his superannuation.

O. P. FITZGERALD.

Question 18 was called, viz: "Who are superannuated?"

J. D. Pegram, from the Committee on Conference Relations, submitted a report recommending that Moses J. Hunt and Thomas J. Browning be granted a superannuated relation, which was adopted.

A. R. Goodchild submitted the report of the Committee on Bible Cause, which was read and adopted. (Document No. 3 of the Appendix.)

On motion of J. N. Cole, it was ordered that the balance of $23.28, due the Secretary, be paid by the Joint Board of Finance out of the funds of the different Boards of the Conference.

J. W. Jenkins moved

That the Secretary be authorized to deposit the papers of the Conference with Prof. Bassett if he should find it best to do so, otherwise that he be authorized to purchase a receptacle for them, and charge the cost to the Conference.

J. T. Bagwell offered the following substitute, which was adopted:

Moved that the Secretary be instructed to provide a secure box or trunk in which to deposit the papers and records of the Conference, and also to deposit it in a fireproof vault or safe in such place as to facilitate his reference to it.

On motion of E. A. Yates, it was ordered that when the Conference adjourns it do so to meet to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock for the memorial services.

R. B. John presented the following report, which was adopted, and the character of R. J. Moorman was passed:

Your Committee, appointed to investigate complaints made against R. J. Moorman, beg leave to report that we have carefully considered all the evidence before us and unanimously judge a trial not to be necessary.

R. B. John,
W. J. Twilley.
G. F. Smith.

Question 4 was called, viz: "Who are admitted into full connection?"

Bryan C. Thompson, Robert H. Willis, Andrew J. Groves, Albert S. Barnes having passed the examination of character, and having been approved by the Examining Committee, were examined by the Bishop in open Conference and admitted into full connection.

E. A. Yates introduced the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted by a rising vote:

Whereas, the last session of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, held in the city of Baltimore, passed a resolution requesting Bishop O. P. Fitzgerald to prepare, in book form, an autobiographical sketch of his life, embracing some of the men and measures of his time; and

Whereas, our beloved Bishop is a native of that part of North Carolina embraced within the bounds of the North Carolina Conference, therefore,

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the action of the General Conference in this regard, and that we highly appreciate the compliment thus incidentally passed upon the State in general, and upon this Conference in particular; and may our Heavenly Father give grace, time and strength to our dear brother for the accomplishment of this labor of love.

E. A. Yates,
B. R. Hall.

W. E. Hocutt having lost his credentials, it was ordered that duplicates of them be given him by the officers of this Conference.

The hour of 1 o'clock, P. M., having arrived, the Conference adjourned.

Benediction by Rev. T. N. Ivey, D. D.

South, ordained Robert W. Bailey, Solon A. Cotton, Samuel Leffers, Raleigh A. Bruton, and Nathaniel L. Seabolt to the office of elder.

W. S. Rone introduced the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, The Methodist Episcopal Church is pushing, and seeking to push, its way into many parts and to sections of our Conference now and hitherto unoccupied by itself, to the division and great detriment and hurt of Methodism and the cause of Christ, therefore

RESOLVED, That we protest against this course of this sister branch of our Methodism as a violation of the original Plan of Separation, the agreement of the Cape May and Federation Commissions, and all professions of friendship and fraternity.

RESOLVED, 2d, That the Secretary be directed to communicate this action to the Commission of Federation of our Church with the request that they seek to remedy the evil set forth.

(Signed) W. S. RONE,
BENJ. R. HALL.

Question 9 was called, viz: "What traveling preachers are ordained deacons?"

On yesterday, at the close of the morning service in this church, Bishop Fitzgerald ordained Andrew J. Groves to the office of a deacon.

Benediction by Bishop Fitzgerald.

SIXTH DAY.

December 6th, 1898.

The Conference opened at 9 o'clock, A. M., Bishop Fitzgerald in the chair.

The opening religious services were conducted by Bishop Fitzgerald, Rev. J. D. Bundy leading in prayer.

The Journal of yesterday's afternoon session was read and approved.

N. H. D. Wilson submitted and read the report of the Board of Missions, which was adopted. (Document No. 9 of Appendix.)

Bishop Fitzgerald announced the following Joint Board of Finance:

CLERICAL—W. C. Norman, R. F. Taylor, L. E. Thompson, J. E. Thompson, C. W. Smith, L. J. Holden, N. M. Watson, J. D. Bundy, J. A. Hornaday.

LAY—B. B. Adams, W. H. Branson, Q. K. Nimocks, F. B. Gibson, W. E. Springer, T. A. Green, D. D. Haskett, J. T. Flythe, C. E. Cramer.

At the third Quarterly Conference of Grace and Bladen Street charges of the M. E. Church, South, Wilmington, N. C., August 15th, 1898, the following question of law was submitted to the Conference by Brother Roger Moore:

Paragraph 232, Section 4 of Discipline, says: "Let the membership of every Church, where it is practicable, be divided into smaller companies called classes," etc., etc.

Paragraph 234 of the same section says: "The pastor shall visit every class once a quarter and report its condition to the Quarterly Conference," etc., etc."

Paragraph 184, Section 14, asks: "How are leaders to be appointed?" The answer: "By the preacher in charge, who shall appoint one person in each class to be leader thereof."

Now, if the Church is not divided into classes is it legal to appoint class leaders who are not selected from classes as the Discipline requires and who therefore have no classes and are not appointed from classes?"

Now, having been appointed contrary to our Church law, have they a right to be members of the Quarterly Conference and to have a voice in its deliberations?

We claim that our Church, not having been divided into classes (nor is it now), and that class leaders were not appointed from classes, that their appointments are illegal.

That they are only nominal class leaders and are not entitled to membership in the Quarterly Conference, never having been appointed to a certain number of members so as to make any report concerning them.

We therefore pray your decision.

The Presiding Elder, after hearing the statement of the pastor as to the manner of his appointment of class leaders, ruled that he had complied with the spirit and intent of the law governing the appointment of class leaders, and that said class leaders were therefore legally members of the Quarterly Conference. R. C. BEAMAN.

From which decision Brother Moore appealed to the Annual Conference and the appeal was granted.

And Bishop Fitzgerald rendered the following decison:

The evident purpose, and the sole purpose of the law which makes a class leader a member of the Quarteriy Conference is, that he should represent in that body his work done in his class, according to paragraph 186, section 14, chapter 3d, page 81 of our Book of Discipline. In our polity a class leader necessarily implies: 1. A class formed according to paragraph 231, section 4, Chapter VI, page 97. 2. That he himself be a member of that class. See paragraph 183, section 14, Chapter III, page 80.

Now, in the case of Grace and Bladen Street charges, Wilmington, N. C., it appears, both from the statement made by those who submitted the question of law to the Presiding Elder, and from that of the pastor in charge himself, that there have been, and are now, no classes in a disciplinary sense in those charges. Hence, in the same sense, there are no class leaders. Hence it follows that there are no persons who, by reason of that designation, are entitled to seats in the Quarterly Conference. The ruling of the Presiding Elder in the case is therefore reversed.

O. P. FITZGERALD.

W. J. Crowson submitted and read the report of the Sunday School Board, which was adopted. (Document No. 10 of Apendix.)

J. T. Abernethy submitted and read the report of the Committee on District Conference Records, which was adopted. (Document No. 11 of Appendix.)

J. W. Jenkins submitted and read the report of the Committee on Orphanage, which was adopted. (Document No. 12 of Appendix.)

On motion of F. A. Bishop the name of B. B. Holder was referred to the Committee on Conference Relations for a superannuated relation.

A. J. Parker introduced a resolution regarding statistical reports from the individual churches of the charges of the Conference. On motion it was laid on the table.

J. M. Rice sumbitted and read the report of the Committee on Temperance, which, after amendment, was adopted. (Document No. 13 of Appendix.)

The Presiding Elders nominated J. W. Jenkins, J. N. Cole, J. G. Brown, E. J. Parrish, L. B. Bynum as the Committee on Orphanage, which nominations were confirmed.

J. C. Kilgo introduced the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the month of February, 1899, be observed as Advocate month, and that each pastor shall preach a sermon on the first Sunday in February on the subject of Christian literature, and that a thorough canvass shall be made of each charge for the purpose of securing subscribers to the Conference organ.

J. B. Hurley.
John H. Hall,
John C. Kilgo.

N. H. D. Wilson introduced the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted by a rising vote:

We desire, as a Conference, to express the very delightful impression made upon us by Elizabeth City Methodism, and by our sister churches here. We are persuaded that our Lord has in this good city a very choice company of his own elect whose hospitality has been exceedingly comfortable and full of good cheer to us and adorned with the grace of a true Christian refinement:

Therefore be it Resolved, That we tender our sincere thanks to these good friends for their most kindly entertainment of this Conference.

J. N. Cole,
T. N. Ivey,
N. H. D. Wilson.

Question 3 was called, viz: "Who are discontinued?"
Answer: None.
Question 5 was called, viz: "Who are re-admitted?"
Answer: None.

L. L. Nash introduced the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted by a rising vote:

Whereas, Bishop O. P. Fitzgerald, is a native of North Carolina, and this being the first session of this Conference over which he has presided since he has filled the office of Bishop in our Church, we take great pleasure in expressing our delight at having him with us, and great satisfaction at his presidency of the Conference,

RESOLVED, First, That we assure him that his visit to this Conference has been a benediction to his brethren, and his courteous bearing toward every member of this body is highly appreciated.

RESOLVED, Second, That we shall always welcome him to preside over us, and pray that our Father may bless him with health and long life, and at last an abundant entrance into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ.

L. L. NASH,
J. T. GIBBS,
W. S. RONE.

R. B. John, from the Epworth League Board, said the Board would not submit a report. As chairman of the new board, he announced that the board had determined upon an Epworth League Conference to include the first Sunday in April.

Question 17 was called, viz.: Who are supernumerary?"

J. D. Pegram, from the Committee on Conference Relations, submitted a report recommending that J. W. Strider and J. C. Crisp be granted a supernumerary relation, which was adopted.

Question 18 was called, viz: "Who are superannuated?"

J. D. Pegram, from the Committee on Conference Relations, submitted a report recommending that Barna B. Holder be granted a superannuated relation, which was adopted.

N. H. D. Wilson introduced the following resolution, which was adopted by a rising vote:

RESOLVED, That we thank the Railroads for giving reduced rates and for other kindnesses.

N. H. D. WILSON.
J. N. COLE.

On motion of B. R. Hall the Conference requested the Joint Board of Finance to pay the sum of $50 out of the funds on hand to B. B. Holder.

The Journal of the morning's session was read and approved.

Question 46 was called, viz.: "Where are the preachers stationed this year?"

Bishop Fitzgerald announced the appointments. (See Appointments.)

The Conference adjourned at 11.40 o'clock, A. M.

Benediction by Bishop Fitzgerald.

MEMOIR OF REV. J. B. MARTIN.

Joseph Bonaparte Martin, son of Jesse and Cecelia Martin, was born in Henry county, Virginia, March 1st, 1824. His inheritance, physical, mental and social, was much above the average. His grandfather, General Joseph Martin, was one of the giants of Revolutionary times, and as warrior and statesman did much to push civilization westward. His father, also, was a soldier, serving in the war of 1812.

Brother Martin's early life was the invigorating and developing life of the country boy, alternating between the school room and the farm, with some experience in stores and shops. His early surroundings were not religious, but he was converted during a quarterly meeting held in Franklin county, Virginia, July 30, 1844, by Rev. S. S. Bryant, P. E., and Rev. R. P. Bibb, P. C. He joined the Methodist Church; was early in the next year licensed to exhort, and a little later, to preach. During a part of that year he helped his pastor, Rev. R. P. Bibb, in Franklin county; and at the session of the Conference held in Washington, N. C., though not present, was received on trial in the North Carolina Conference. The length of his ministry was thus exactly that of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, which was organized at Louisville, Ky., 1845. He was ordained by Bishop Andrew deacon at Greensboro in 1847 and elder at Oxford in 1849.

He received 46 appointments, serving the following charges: Mocksville Circuit, 1846, assisting Rev. R. P. Bibb; Jonesville Circuit, 1847; Guilford Circuit, 1848-'49; Beaufort, 1850.

His throat failing him in March of that year, he returned to his Virginia home to recuperate; but was able to give valuable assistance during the year to his pastor there.

Roanoke Circuit, 1851-'52, Rev. R. O. Burton assisting; Bladen Circuit, 1853, Rev. S. D. Adams assisting; Bladen Circuit, 1854, Rev. C. M. Pepper assisting; Whiteville, 1855; Sampson, 1856-'57, Rev. A. D. Betts assisting the latter year. At the Conference of 1857 he was appointed to Evans Chapel, Fayetteville, assisting Rev. W. H. Bobbitt, of Hay Street, but was early in the year moved by his presiding elder to Robeson Circuit to assist Rev. P. J. Caraway.

Agent of Trinity College, 1859, raising in cash and bonds $5,000; Tar River Circuit, 1860-'61; Pittsboro Circuit, 1862; Haw River Circuit, 1863-'64. The first year he was largely in charge of the work, though nominally second to Dr. Peter Doub; the second year, preacher in charge. Snow Hill Circuit, 1865, 1866 and 1867.

Eighteen sixty-five was a year of great trial to him as to his brethren, and he was obliged to seek rest and support part of the year at his wife's home in New York State. But as soon as the way opened he was again at his post.

Pittsboro Circuit, 1868, 1869 and 1870; Chapel Hill and Haw River 1871, 1872, 1873 and 1874. At the Conference of 1874 he was appointed to Kenansville Circuit; but in February, 1875, being on the verge of nervous prostration, was obliged to surrender the work.

Flat River Circuit, 1876; Orange Circuit, 1877, 1878 and 1879; Haw River Circuit, 1880, 1881, 1882 and 1883; Granville Circuit, 1884-'85; Cary Circuit, 1886-'87; Durham Circuit, 1888-1889; Alamance Circuit, 1890-'91, his last appointment.

During 1891 his health failed so completely that he was obliged to ask a superannuated relation at the Annual Conference. During the remainder of his life he resided at Chapel Hill, N. C., which had been his home since 1872. During his last days he endured much suffering in his body and affliction in his family; nevertheless he was able to be of no little assistance to the cause he loved, aiding in protracted services as his strength would admit.

The life of a Methodist Circuit rider in the fifties was one of labor and hardship, but from the first Brother Martin manifested the courage and zeal which the older members of this body know so well as characteristic of him. In the face of many difficulties he persevered, not only circuit riding, but sometimes circuit walking, and hosts were added to the Church through his ministry. Among these, it is thought, were the following preachers: W. M. Robey, W. C. Gannon, O. J. Brent, J. E. Thompson, M. G. Whitington and S. B. Turrentine. He was pre-eminently a revival preacher, but was not negligent of the other interests of the Church, as bear testimony—societies organized, churches and parsonages built, repaired or finished, and large amounts raised for the general interests of the Church.

Brother Martin was one of a large family. A sister and three brothers survive him: Mrs. George Richardson, and Calvin Luther, and Patrick Henry Martin, of Virginia, and Jesse Graves Martin, of Kentucky. Four brothers died before him, three of whom were ministers. Rev. John K. Martin was a Primitive Baptist, and Rev. Brice Martin a Presbyterian. Rev. LaFayette Martin was for several years a member of the North Carolina Conference, but was forced by ill-health to retire, became a physician, but soon died. William Martin was a physician. Brother Martin was thrice married—first to Miss Mary Carver, of Cumberland county, N. C., November 29, 1853. She died at Blockersville, less than three years later, leaving one son, Walter, who now lives at Four Oaks, N. C. This son showed true nobility in claiming the privilege of paying all expenses in connection with the burial of his sainted father.

The second marriage was to Miss Mary Fletcher Clegg, of Chatham county, October 4, 1859, who died August, 1862, leaving no children. His last wife, who survives him, and to whose love, devotion and skill he owed much of the comfort of his declining years, was Miss Clara Scarborough, of Masena, St. Lawrence county, New York, whom he married in Pittsboro, N. C., where she was teaching, December 23, 1863. To this union were born seven daughters and one son. Two daughters, Mary, wife of Dr. Stephen B. Weeks, and Clara, died in a few weeks of each other in 1891. The oldest living child, Miss Lizzie Reid Martin, is a consecrated and successful worker of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Board in China. The others are, Mrs. R. L. Uzzell, Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. Frank Page, Biscoe, N. C., and Misses Floy and Blanche, and J. B. Martin, Jr., who are still under the parental roof.

The last few months of Brother Martin's life were largely free from pain. He had unusual strength during the summer and fall, and was able to visit several of his old churches and render efficient service by preaching in the protracted meetings. He was looking forward with anticipations of great pleasure to the session of the Annual Conference. But yielding to the requests of his brother and friends near Danville, Va., and to the natural desire of mingling with many known and loved in other days, he went to Danville to attend the sessioa of the Virginia Conference and then to his brother Patrick's, near Danville, for a visit. While in Danville he was induced to submit himself to treatment, which proved too severe to his feeble system and, after some days of great pain, he passed away December 11th, 1897, in hope of a glorious resurrection. His mortal remains were carried back to his home and laid to rest near those of his two daughters in the Chapel Hill cemetery. His funeral was conducted by Dr. E. A. Yates, assisted by his pastor, Rev. N. H. D. Wilson, and Revs. J. N. Cole, G. A. Oglesby, Dr. Thos. Hume, of the University, and Rev. D. J. Currie, of the Presbyterian Church, Chapel Hill, N. C.

The writer, his presiding elder, though desiring greatly to aid in the last token of respect to one who had been his close friend and fellow workman for many years, was himself too ill at the time to attend.

The foregoing paper was furnished the committee by Dr. J. A. Cuninggim who, but for his feebleness, would have added a paragraph concerning Brother Martin's spiritual life and character. This, though desirable, was not necessary. For more than half a century Joseph B. Martin has been a member of this Conference. His work abides. Strong in the Lord, with a courage that knows no fear, with a burning zeal, he fought a good fight; he kept the faith; in Christ he is victorious.

MEMOIR OF REV. J. C. McCALL.

The writer of Brother McCall's memoir does not need to pick and choose his words, to cut and trim his expressions, to dodge in and out between the virtues and the delinquencies of the man. The strongest and most emphatic language may be used without exaggerating his virtues.

Rev. John Calton McCall, son of Hugh and Sarah A. McCall, was born in Richmond county, N. C., June 17th. 1867, and died at his old home near Lauringburg, January 14, 1898, and was buried in the family cemetery.

He was converted while upon his knees at his bedside and joined the church at St. John's Station, in 1883.

He graduated at Rutherford College in 1889, and afterward attended Vanderbilt University.

He was licensed to preach by the Laurinburg Circuit, joined the North Carolina Conference at Greenville in 1891. was ordained deacon by Bishop Duncan at Wilmington in 1893, an elder by Bishop Wilson at Elizabeth City two years later.

He was stationed at Tarboro, as assistant pastor; at Bladen Street Church, Wilmington; at Greenville as assistant pastor; and at Murfreesboro.

Less than thirty years years were given him in which to do his life-work, but he did it well, as those who sat under his ministry, or were intimately acquainted with him can testify.

A finer or more transparent Christian character I have never known. Gentle and pure as a woman, kind and courteous, modest and sweet-spirited, intelligent, charitable, Christ-like in conversation and conduct, he deeply impressed all with whom he came in contact as a man of God. No effort was made to appear pious, but as naturally as the flower emits its fragrance, the goodness and beauty and loveliness of his character revealed itself.

One who knew him well said of him: "I never heard him speak a word which would have been wrong if uttered by an angel.

After being intimately associated with him a year and meeting him frequently during the last two years of his life I can endorse that statement.

His resignation to God's will was almost perfect. Of course it cost a struggle to give up his life-work before he was twenty-eight years old.

Writing to an old school-mate he said: "The state of my health compelled me to ask for a superannuated relation at Conference. It was not so hard to give up the work there, for then the tempest was over, the billows were sweetly at rest. I am satisfied since He leadeth me. It is the Lord who lets me call him Father, and the Father will do what is best for his child."

Only a few days before his death he wrote a poem, "Another Superannuate's Plea," so full of hope and trust and sesignation that I will quote from it:

"It seems hard to see one's life-plans
And one's fondest hopes decay,
But to know that God is leading
Brings peace and comfort day by day.

"I had dreamed of years of labor,
Prayed for service in the field;
But the Master's voice recalled me,
And to His voice I gladly yield.

"I had thought to die in harness
In the thickest of the strife,
Would surely be the sweetest closing
Of a faithful preacher's life.

"But I find my thoughts are changing
As the shadows nearer roll;
For to die where Christ is present,
That is sweetest to the soul."

Brother McCall was a systematic student. From the study of the Bible he obtained spiritual food and inspiration for his Christian life as well as material for his sermons. So keenly did he feel the responsibility of his high calling that he rarely went into the pulpit without careful preparation.

The thought of his sermons was clear, expressed in pure English and delivered so as to profit and to please.

His congregations loved him tenderly. He grappled them to his soul with hooks of steel. Had he lived he would have become one of the most useful and influential members of the Conference.

Let us thank God for such a choice spirit even for a few short years. By cherishing the memory of his Christ-like character we shall enrich our own spiritual lives.

To have known and loved him makes it impossible to have a low estimate of human nature.

To his four sisters and two brothers he leaves a rich spiritual legacy. One of his brothers, Rev. F. B. McCall is a useful member of the North Carolina Conference.

I am glad I knew and loved Brother McCall, though it cost the pain of parting.

What Tennyson said of Hallam, the friend of his youth, expresses my feeling :

"I hold it true whatever befall—
I feel it when I sorrow most.
'Tis better to have loved and lost
Than never to have loved at all."

Brother McCall knew the end was near when he wrote:

"So give me a place among the worn-out
For just a little while at best,
Soon I expect to take a transfer
To the Conference of the Blest."

The Great Bishop transferred him to the Conference of the Blest, and, I believe, stationed him near the throne.

Sometime before he died he said, "There is not a shadow between me and God."

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BIBLE CAUSE.

The Committee would respectfully report to the Conference that we have had before us the Field Agent of the American Bible Society, Brother T. H. Law, D. D., who has furnished the Committee with information regarding the work, and we beg to present the following brief summary of facts:

1st. By a recent change in its plans the Society throws itself more directly than ever upon the churches whose agent it is, for the maintenance of the great and growing work with which it is charged. Formerly it depended largely upon local societies for support, but now, through a system of field agents, substituted for its old plan of distributing supplies, it appeals directly to the churches in their organized capacity, and asks an annual contribution from them upon the merits of the cause.

2nd. While there has been an encouraging increase in the receipts of the last year amounting to 50 per cent. on those of the year previous, yet the funds at the command of the Society have not been at all adequate to the large and increasing demand of the work in both the home and foreign fields, a work which underlies all other departments of evangelism and is indispensable to their progress and development.

3rd. Recent events have emphasized the value and importance of the great agency for the distribution of God's Word. When hundreds of thousands of our young men were gathered in military camps at the call of the President of the United States they were promptly and fully supplied by the American Bible Society through the Christian Commission of the Young Men's Christian Association, with the Scriptures in a suitable form for the soldier to carry and use. And the countries delivered from the bondage of Popery by the results of the late war, and now laid open to missionary occupancy and Christian evangelization are being rapidly entered by the Society with Bibles in the languages of the people, and thus essentially aiding the Church in her blessed work of giving a pure Gospel to them.

In view of these facts we urge upon all our pastors the faithful and intelligent presentation of this cause to their respective charges and the raising of collections for it, and for this purpose we advise them to call upon the Field Agent at Spartanburg, S. C., for suitable literature upon the subject, which will be furnished free. Let the facts and the importance of the cause be laid before the people, that they may contribute, not nominally, but as the great cause deserves and requires.

A. R. GOODCHILD, Chairman.

R. E. PITTMAN, Secretary.

[Document No. 4.]

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

The Committee on Books and Periodicals submit the following report:

This is a reading age The people will read something. The question is, What shall they read? Right reading stimulates thought. Thought expands the mind. The mind makes the man. How important, then, that the mental pabulum be pure, solid, nutritious. Tell us what the literature of the people is, and we will tell you what the people are. Let us make the literature of the nation, and we will make the nation. Truly, "the pen is mightier than the sword," and its power is increasing all the time.

In order to utilize this powerful force for God and His Church, and to counteract the baleful influence of the prurient and skeptical literature that has flooded our land, the country must be sown down in pure, powerful books and periodicals.

We are glad to learn from the report of the Book Agents that our Publishing House is flourishing. We present the following

EXHIBIT:

Total business from all departments		$ 336,804 69
Gain in assets for the year ending March 31, 1898		50,027 27
Cash sinking fund		216,653 03
Total assets		898,858 24

LIABILITIES.

Outstanding bonds	$ 225 00
Over-payment of customers	2,407 00
Amount on deposit of S. S. bonds	680 39
Total liabilities	3,313 08
Capital as per ledger		$895,545 16

We most heartily commend it to the patronage of our people.

Our great connectional organ, "The Christian Advocate," at Nashville, Tenn., is a superb paper, most ably edited, and worthy of the patronage of all our people. It should be in every Southern Methodist home.

"The Bi-Monthly Review," under the editorship of Dr. J. J. Tigert, is rapidly advancing to the front on the higher plains of religious literature. All our preachers and cultured laymen ought to read it in order to keep pace with the mind of the times.

"The Epworth Era" is a gem for our young people.

We take great pleasure in calling attention to "Spiritual Life," a new book written by Rev. L. L. Nash, D. D., a member of this Conference; a book highly commended by those who have read it. We recommend it to the reading public.

NORTH CAROLINA CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

We offer the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, the principal owner of the "North Carolina Advocate," Dr. L. W. Crawford, has, by letter, notified this Conference that the North Carolina Advocate Co. cannot longer support two editors; and

WHEREAS, this Conferenee desires the most kindly fraternal relation with the Western North Carolina Conference, and with Dr. Crawford; and also desires to take no action that will be hurtful to his financial interest or that of any shareholder of the "Advocate Co.;" and

WHEREAS, Dr. Crawford has expressed his willingness to a friendly separation of the two Conferences on the paper question, on condition that this Conference buy a half interest in the "North Carolina Advocate" for the sum of $6,500, with the view of our establishing our own Conference organ; and

WHEREAS, we be believe that such action would be to the interest, peace and prosperity of our common Methodism in this State; therefore,

RESOLVED, 1st, That we appoint the following committee, Rev. W. C. Norman, Rev. N. M. Watson, Brothers J. G. Brown, A. M. Powell and W. B. Harker, whose duty shall be to organize a stock company for the purchase of said interest, or so much thereof as may be practicable and equitable. If, however, the effort to purchase said interest in the "North Carolina Advocate Co." fail for any cause not due to us, then we instruct the committee to organize the stockholders of the "North Carolina Advocate Co.," or any number of them resident within the bounds of this Conference, and their associates, into a new stock company for the establishment of said Conference organ. It being understood and mutually agreed.

1st. That the Conference shall name the editor and shall have absolute control of the editorial policy of the paper.

2nd. That the Conference shall adopt said paper as its organ, from year to year, as long as it is allowed to name the editor, provided that the Conference, at any time, shall have the option of purchasing the entire stock at an agreed price.

3rd. It is further agreed that the cash subscription price shall not be more than $1.50 per year.

RESOLVED, 2nd, That, if the above plan fail, this publishing committee is fully empowered and instructed to take such steps as may be necessary to establish a Conference organ, without, however, involving the Conference in any financial obligation.

RESOLVED, 3rd, That this committee shall not take action until a reasonable time for the joint commission to meet—not later than Saturday, December 17th, 1898.

RESOLVED, 4th. That the Conference elect, by ballot, an editor to serve for a term of two years, at a salary of not less than $1,500 per year.

RESOLVED, 5th. That we, as a Conference, express our high appreciation of the editorial services of Rev. T. N. Ivey, D. D., during the past two years.

J. W. JENKINS, Chairman.

J. S. BETTS, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Methodism recognizes the fact that the cultivation of the mind and heart is indispensable to the advancement of the Church. Culture and grace combined will raise humanity to its true dignity and give the Church potency over the progressive civilization of the age. Methodism was begun in a college, and was baptized by divine grace. Education and religion are the two aims of our Zion, and are vital and essential in her upward growth. The Church must ever hold her place in the revival of learning. She has led the van in the past, and this is her mission and duty for the human race as long as the world shall stand.

As there is confusion in the minds of many as to Christian education, we define it as follows:

The aim of Christian education is to form and develop Christian character upon the doctrines and by the methods of Christ. It therefore assumes that the Bible is a divine revelation of the Supreme Body of Truth, revealing the only true triune God, the origin of all things, the nature of man, the moral condition of human nature, the only method of human salvation, and the divine doctrines of social and civil life. Christian education interprets material nature, human nature and life by the doctrines of the Bible, and science, literature and philosophy are to be subordinated to the doctrines and aims of the Word of God. Christian education places the Bible in the regular course of study, as the supreme truth to be taught, not simply as history and literature, but as the only doctrines of human redemption.

VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY.

This great university, with its seven departments, occupies the foremost place in the South. It stands abreast with the times in all the lines of broad scholarship. It represents what is loftiest in culture and purest in life.

The Biblical Department is supplying a place not equalled anywhere. Dr. Tillett informs us that 700 preachers of our Church were educated here, and 450 of this number have been active itinerants.

We cheerfully commend this institution to all people in general, and the Biblical Department to every young man preparing for the ministry.

TRINITY COLLEGE.

We are glad to note that Trinity College has made great progress during this scholastic year. The matriculations have greatly increased. Trinity does only college work. The preparatory work is left entirely to the high schools. Culture and character receive equal attention.

The financial condition of the college has been wonderfully improved. The trustees inform us that through the magnanimity and philanthropy of Brother W. Duke another $100,000 has been added to the endowment of the college, besides the Mary Duke building, valued at $4,500, has been turned over to the trustees.

Brother B. N Duke has given $5,000 for the improvement of the park. We are glad to learn, also, of the plans laid for building a president's home, and that a gymnasium is being constructed.

The Craven Memorial Hall is rising rapidly, and will soon stand as a suitable monument to him who inspired the youth of North Carolina with a holy ambition, unequaled in the history of the State.

An unknown friend has given the funds which established the Trinity Park High School.

In 1890 the value of the college property was $10,000; now over $500,000.

We request the Conference to confirm the following nomination for trustee: Rev. John N. Cole.

The Board requests the Conference to ask the Bishop to re-appoint Dr. J. C. Kilgo President, and Rev. N. M Jurney Agent for Craven Memorial Hall.

GREENSBORO FEMALE COLLEGE.

This time-honored institution continues her career of prosperity. She is in the front rank of female colleges in our Southland and the peer of any in the Old North State. This home and Mecca for young ladies is ever developing along all lines of culture and grace. The Board commends it heartily to all our people.

LITTLETON FEMALE COLLEGE

This institution is doing very good and uniformly successful work. The property is owned by a joint stock company, and the Conference owns and controls a majority of the stock issued. There is for this institution a great work and a great opportunity, and we heartily recommend it to our people as in every way worthy of their patronage.

The Board recommends that Rev. R. C. Beaman be appointed to fill a vacancy on the Board of Trustees appointed to the Conference, to hold and control the stock which the Conference owns.

The Board asks that Rev. J. M. Rhodes be re-appointed President.

LOUISBURG FEMALE COLLEGE.

This college is managed in the interest of Methodists. Its terms of tuition are so low as to make education possible to those of very moderate means.

HIGH SCHOOLS.

The High Schools at Old Trinity and at Trinity Park, Durham, are specially designed to prepare boys for college. These schools have excellent faculties. Methodist boys preparing for college could receive no better training than is offered here.

SCARRITT BIBLE TRAINING SCHOOL.

This school is located in Kansas City, Mo., and is designed to equip young ladies as missionaries, nurses, Sunday School teachers and workers. This institution is doing a unique work, and is supplying a long-felt want in our Zion.

GENERAL BOARD.

Your Board would again recommend the continuance of the plan designed by the General Board. We would emphasize the standard required for the Baccalaureate degree.

We recommend that an assessment of $600 be made for Paine Institute; that an assessment of $323 be made for the General Board for the ensuing year, and that the Conference be asked to raise $5,000 for education, and these pro-rated with the General Board.

We ask that Dr. J. C. Kilgo be re-appointed Educational Secretary for this Conference.

We request that the second Sabbath in April be Educational Day, and that every preacher preach a special sermon on the subject and take a collection, as provided in the Discipline, paragraph 412.

We respectfully urge that all our people co-operate with the Sunday Schools in the observance of Children's Day.

The following are assessments for 1899:

Districts.	Paine Institute.	Education.
Raleigh	$ 71 00	$ 628 00
Durham	70 00	620 00
Fayetteville	54 00	482 00
Rockingham	57 00	508 00
Wilmington	63 00	559 00
New Berne	69 00	612 00
Washington	73 00	644 00
Warrenton	71 00	631 00
Elizabeth City	72 00	639 00
Total	$600 00	$5,323 00

The Board desires to submit the following resolution:

WHEREAS, it has been learned through the report of the Executive Board of the Trustees of Trinity College of the beneficence and philanthropy of Brother Washington Duke in donating the present year $100,000 to the endowment of our college, and

WHEREAS, Brother B. N. Duke has made large gifts to various improvements of the College; be it

RESOLVED, 1. That we express our most sincere appreciation of these gifts, and record our gratitude to a kind Providence for giving to our Church men with such unselfish love for their Church and appreciation of Christian education as to furnish the means necessary for the upbuilding of Trinity College;

RESOLVED, 2. Whereas, President John C. Kilgo has given heroic service to Trinity College and Christian education, laying mind, heart and soul upon the altar of his Church;

RESOLVED, 3. That the Board assure him of their most sincere sympathy and endorsement, and pledge to him and his able colleagues most earnest support, and pray that the Lord may guide them in all things and bestow on them His richest blessings;

RESOLVED, 4. That we heartily endorse the wisdom and course of the Trustees as manifested in the management of the College, and do assure them of our confidence in their ability so to administer the affairs as to guide it to still greater usefulness and worth to our Methodism and the Church of God.

E. C. GLENN, President protem.

W. H. TOWNSEND, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

Your Board of Missions beg leave to present their report as follows:

We have learned with profound joy the success which has crowned the work of our missionaries in foreign lands, but our joy is mingled with regret; for, while this success brings absolute necessity for expansion in the old fields, in addition to the new fields so wonderfully opened to us by God in Cuba and Porto Rico, we have to report a decided decrease in contributions for this work in our Conference. This must not occur again. We therefore urge upon each one, presiding elders and preachers and laymen, to use all the plans recommended by our Book of Discipline, and to add thereto their prayers, that the Church in our bounds may be brought to see and do her duty.

We call the attention of both presiding elders and preachers to Article XVII and XVIII of the Constitution of the Board. The former provides, by special enactment of the last General Conference, that the presiding elder shall preach on the subject of Missions annually in each charge in the district, and shall conduct with his preachers a missionary institute early in the Conference year. The second article mentioned stresses missionary mass meetings and the circulation of missionary literature, and lays upon the pastor the obligation of providing for the same. In this connection we commend our own missionary literature as beyond criticism. The REVIEW should be widely spread and the WORLD FOR CHRIST should be in every home.

During the year we have contributed $6,375 to the support of thirty-five missionaries. With them, as with the most of our charges, t' is has been a hard year, but most of them have wrought faithfully and well.

The following are the amounts which were assessed and paid by the different districts:

For the relief of the Treasurer of the Joint Board of Finance and of the presiding elders, and for the better regulation of our work, we make the following order: Hereafter every preacher in charge is required to send the amounts collected by him for Domestic Missions to the Treasurer of the Board of Missions. Neither the missionaries nor the presiding elders are authorized to receipt for this money, and the Treasurer of the Joint Board of Finance will be instructed in his settlements with the preachers to accept only those receipts which are signed by the Treasurer of the Board of Missions.

Let us also remind the preachers that they are requested to send no money to our Treasurer at Nashville for Foreign Missions. This also, as rapidly as it can be collected, should be forwarded to the Treasurer of the Conference Board of Missions.

We would beg you to carry out the resolution which you have so often adopted to take the Missionary collections, and especially the Domestic Mission collections, as early as possible. And not only to take the collections, but forward the amounts raised to the Treasurer without delay.

We rejoice to have had with us during the Conference session our General Secretary, Dr. J. H. Pritchett, and give him hearty thanks for his advice and public and private assistance.

We would also record our appreciation of the services of our faithful Treasurer, Millard Mial, Esq., who for eight years has cheerfully discharged the arduous duties of his office.

And now, in surrendering the great work which for four years we have conducted, we beg for those whom you have chosen to succeed us your hearty Christian support. Your Board of Missions, brethren, bear heavy burdens. Give them your aid and your prayers.

F. D. Swindell, President.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

The Committee on District Conference Records beg leave to report that the records of the Warrenton, Raleigh, Fayetteville, Wilmington, Durham, Washington and New Berne Districts are correctly and neatly kept. This is true, also, of the records of the Elizabeth City District, with the single exception that one of the lay delegates is reported as representing two different charges of the same session of the Conference. The records of the Rockingham District were not before us.

Respectfully submitted,

J. M. ASHBY, President.

JOHN T. ABERNETHY, Secretary.

[Document No. 11.

REPORT OF SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

The Sunday School Board respectfully submit their report, as follows:

During the year the sum of $330.43 has been expended in aid of needy Sunday Schools.

The collections on Children's Day for the current year amount to $263.65. Ten per cent. of this amount, $26.36, has been paid to the Secretary of the Board of Education for the General Board, leaving balance in hand of our Treasurer, together with balance noted above, $269.22.

The Board is pleased to continue the following offer, namely:

To needy schools, unable to purchase their own supplies, an amount not exceeding ten dollars for the purchase of our own literature and song books.

To needy Sunday Schools without libraries we will donate two-thirds the cost of a library, not exceeding in cost $25.

Applications for aid must be made to Rev. T. J. Gattis, Treasurer, signed by the preacher in charge and superintendent of school desiring aid.

We recommend that the pastors forward all money raised on Children's Day to Rev. T. J. Gattis, Treasurer, who will acknowledge receipt for same and disburse the money upon application for aid as ordered by this Board.

The law of the Church now requires that every Sunday School shall be a missionary body. We recommend the plan adopted by the Missionary Board at its last annual meeting as simple and effective in doing this work, and trust our pastors will be leaders in the movement.

We recommend that in future the District Sunday School Conferences shall be composed as follows:

The Superintendents ex officio and one delegate from each school having less than one hundred members. From each school having more than one hundred members, two delegates. Delegates to be elected by the schools.

The Board also recommends that a joint anniversary of the Sunday School Board and Epworth League Committee be held annually on Thursday night during the session of the Annual Conference, and that a suitable program be prepared by the chairman of said boards.

Respectfully submitted,

W. J. Crowson, Chairman.

F. B. McCall, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ORPHANAGE.

The Committee on Orphanage Asylum, Superannuated Preachers and Preacher's Widow's Home beg leave to report.

We rejoice to learn that the Mother of Orphan Asylums in North Carolina, the Oxford, is succeeding so well, and doing such a great work.

We, as Methodists, owe the Masonic fraternity a vote of thanks for their liberality to us in giving us such prominence in its control and management, and in taking such tender care of our children.

We are informed that of the two hundred and twenty children in the Oxford Asylum ninety-nine are of Methodist parentage. All honor to the ancient order of Free and Accepted Masons for being in the lead of this great work.

The Baptists, the Presbyterians, the Episcopalians, the Friends and the Independent Order of Odd Fellows all have orphan asylums of their own.

The great Methodist Church has none. While some of our big-hearted Methodists are doing liberal things for the Masonic orphanage, we, as a denomination, are doing comparatively little for orphan children. We raise about two thousand dollars a year on Thanksgiving Day for the Oxford Asylum—about enough to support twenty children. Our Baptist brethren have some hundred and forty or fifty, we understand.

There are five thousand orphans in this State at this time. Less than one thousand are taken care of in orphan homes

Are we, as a Church, doing our duty towards that unfortunate class? If the history of orphanage work in North Carolina were written to-day the Methodists would not be mentioned. Our full strength in that line can never be developed until we have an asylum of our own.

We propose to enter the field with the very kindest feelings for all—not as rivals, but in loving co-operation.

The question also arises, Have we done our duty in providing a home for our superannuated preachers and for the wives of preachers who have died in the service of the Church. We know that we have not.

The following plan is proposed: Appoint a committee of five—two ministers and three laymen—to take the whole matter under advisement; and if the way should be opened for the establishing of an asylum and home as above mentioned, that they take steps to do so. That the preachers call the attention of our people to this matter and send to the committee the names of any who may desire to contribute to such an institution.

But, RESOLVED, That we continue our support of the Oxford Asylum until we have one of our own.

(Signed) J. W JENKINS, Ch'm.

A. J. PARKER, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

It is the sense of your Committee that the liquor traffic as licensed by our Government is an open and bold defiance to every principle of moral law, and that it has been and is a menace to all our civilizing and Christianizing insttutions, and that it has meanwhile been a factor of untold evil in determining the religious, social and political status of the nation. Therefore be it

RESOLVED, 1st, That we, as a Conference, are in active sympathy with every movement to prohibit the manufacture and sale of all intoxicating liquors.

2d. That we pledge ourselves to do all we can to have our discipline enforced and to put into effect the law relative to our public schools touching the temperance question.

3d. That we suggest that our preachers, when they can secure the co-operation of preachers of other churches, use their influence, in a proper way, with the County Commissioners to prevent the issuing of license.

J. H. PAGE, Chairman.

J. M. RICE, Secretary.

Sessions of the North Carolina Conference.

The North Carolina Conference was set off from the Virginia Conference in February, 1837. In 1850, and again in 1870, North Carolina territory in the South Carolina Conference was transferred to this Conference. In 1890 North Carolina territory in the Holston Conference and in the Virginia Conference, except that beyond the Chowan River, was transferred to the North Carolina Conference and the Conference was divided into the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences. In 1894 the remaining N. C. territory in the Virginia Conference was transferred to the N. C. Conference. So now the two Conferences embrace the whole of North Carolina.
